I'm doing some informal research on all things NaNo-related, and in my poking around, I noticed that this site has been around since 2007. Looking at the 2003 version of NaNoWriMo's staff page, I see that one of their 2003 staffers ran a NaNoEdMo. There's a reasonable chance that this version is a different version of that, which is why I'm asking here--I figure a grizzled veteran EdMo would have an answer.

So anyone have an idea?
